3. Mail dt. 31.03.2011 from Shri Bimal Kr.Naulakha (Jain), National President,
National BSNL Franchisee Association.

It has been intimated by the Franchisees' Association that there is a scheduled meeting between the Franchisees' Association and BSNL Corporate office on 12th April wherein the matter will be discussed. Further, BSNL Corporate office vide reference at S.No.2 cited above, has intimated that the issues are under examination by the Corporate office and in the meantime it has been decided that BSNL TN Circle as of now can issue stocks to the franchisees after deducting TDS only. In so far as raising of invoices for service tax on BSNL by the franchisees concerned, it is hereby intimated that all franchisees may be directed to give a letter to the effect that they will raise invoices on BSNL towards service tax component payable by BSNL to them for the commission they have received on purchase of stock during the month of April, by end April in case there is no change in the policy of BSNL.

All Accounts Officers (Sales) are therefore authorized to issue stocks to the franchisees (both C-Top Up and paper vouchers) after deducting TDS. The service tax component will be dealt separately by the month end. The same instructions hold good for DSA/OSS, etc.
